

Easyplan End User Licence Agreement

PLEASE READ THESE LICENCE AGREEMENT TERMS CAREFULLY EVEN IF YOU HAVE ALREADY CONFIRMED THAT YOU ACCEPT TO BE BOUND BY THEM

This licence agreement (Licence) is a legal agreement between you (Licensee or you) and ELECOSOFT UK LTD incorporated and registered in England and Wales with company number 2021387 whose registered office is at Parkway House, Pegasus Way, Haddenham Business Park, Haddenham, Bucks, HP17 8LJ (Licensor, us or we) for:

- Easyplan software (Software); and
- printed materials, online and electronic documentation (Documentation).

The use of the Software and Documentation is licensed to you by us on the basis of this Licence.

For the avoidance of doubt, we do not sell the Software or Documentation to you. We remain the owners of the Software and Documentation at all times (including without limitation any titles, computer code, themes, objects, object names, concepts, artwork, animations, sounds, audio-visual effects, applets and methods of operation within it and all copies and derivative works of the Software and Documentation).

Agreed terms

1. Grant and scope of licence

- 1.1. In consideration of you agreeing to abide by the terms of this Licence, the Licensor hereby grants to you a limited, non-exclusive licence to use the Software on the terms of this Licence.
- 1.2. You are permitted:
  - (a) where you have purchased a Single User Licence:
    - i. to install and use the Software for your own purposes on one computer under your control;
    - ii. to distribute the Software to the computers on which the Software is to be used by way of a local area network or a wide area network, but not by way of the Internet, World Wide Web or by e-mail or any other network which is not a private network; and
    - iii. to transfer the Software from one computer to another provided it is used on only one computer under your control at any one time.
  - (b) where you have purchased a Concurrent User Licence, to load the Software onto a local area network provided that the maximum number of concurrent users does not exceed the number of concurrent users specified on the invoice(s) relating to the Licence and agreed between you and us.
  - (c) where you have purchased a Concurrent User Licence, to load the Software onto a computer that acts as a terminal server, running multiple instances of the Software, to give other computers access to the Software without it being installed on those computers, provided that the maximum number of concurrent instances of the Software does not exceed the number of licences purchased.
  - (d) where you have purchased the Corporate Client version of the Software, to load the Software onto a number of computers under your control provided that access to the Software is limited to the number of client users for whom you have licences to use the Software.
  - (e) where you have purchased an upgrade to an existing licence either directly or within the terms of a maintenance agreement, to use either the original Software or the upgraded version of the Software. An upgrade licence does not constitute an additional licence and both versions of the Software may not be run simultaneously.

- (f) provided you comply with the provisions in clause 3 of this Licence, to make 1 (one) copy of the Software for back-up purposes.
- (g) in support of the use of the Software under clauses 1.2 and 2 of this Licence, to use any Documentation.
- (h) provided you comply with the provisions in clause 3 of this Licence, to make 1 (one) copy of the Documentation as reasonably necessary for its lawful use.

2. Minor changes, updates and upgrades

We may update or require you to update the Software, provided that the Software shall always match the description of it that we provided to you before you bought it.

3. Restrictions

3.1 Except as expressly set out in this Licence or as permitted by local law, you undertake:

- (a) not to rent, lease, sub-license, loan, modify, adapt, merge, translate or copy (except where such copying is incidental to normal use of the Software or where it is necessary for the purpose of back-up or operational security) the whole or any part of the Software or Documentation.
- (b) not to reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble or create derivative works based on the whole or any part of the Software or Documentation nor attempt to do any such things, except to the extent that such actions (by virtue of sections 50B and 296A of the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988) cannot be prohibited because they are necessary to decompile the Software to obtain the information necessary to create an independent program that can be operated with the Software or with another program (Permitted Objective), and provided that the information obtained by you during such activities:
  - i. is used only for the Permitted Objective;
  - ii. is not disclosed or communicated without the Licensor's prior written consent to any third party to whom it is not necessary to disclose or communicate it in order to achieve the Permitted Objective; and
  - iii. is not used to create any software that is substantially similar in its expression to the Software.
- (c) to keep all copies of the Software secure and to maintain accurate and up-to-date records of the number and locations of all copies of the Software
- (d) to include Licensor's copyright notice on all entire and partial copies of the Software in any form.
- (e) not to provide, or otherwise make available, the Software in any form, in whole or in part (including, but not limited to, program listings, object and source program listings, object code and source code) to any person without prior written consent from Licensor.

4. Intellectual property rights

4.1. You acknowledge that all intellectual property rights in the Software and the Documentation throughout the world belong to Licensor, that rights in the Software are licensed (not sold) to you, and that you have no intellectual property rights in, or to, the Software or the Documentation other than the right to use the Software and the Documentation in accordance with the terms of this Licence.

4.2. You acknowledge that you have no right to have access to the Software in source code form other than as expressly provided in this Licence.

5. Warranty

5.1. We warrant that:

- (a) the Software will perform substantially in accordance with the functions described in the Documentation when properly used on the computer and with an operating system for which it was designed; and
- (b) the Documentation correctly describes the operation of the Software in all material respects for a period of 45 days from the date of purchase of the Software (Warranty Period).

5.2. If you notify us (within the Warranty Period) in writing of any defect or fault in the Software as a result of which it fails to perform substantially in accordance with the Documentation, we will, at our sole option, either repair or replace the Software, provided that you give us proof of purchase and make available all the information that may be necessary to help us to remedy the defect or fault, including sufficient information to enable us to recreate the defect or fault.

5.3. The warranty does not apply:

- (a) if the defect or fault in the Software results from you having altered or modified the Software; or
- (b) if the defect or fault in the Software results from you having used the Software in breach of the terms of this Licence.

5.4. This warranty does not affect and is in addition to your legal rights in relation to Software that is faulty or not as described.

6. Our responsibility for loss or damage suffered by you

6.1. If we fail to comply with these terms, we are responsible for loss or damage you suffer that is a foreseeable result of our breaking this Licence or our failing to use reasonable care and skill. Loss or damage is foreseeable if either it is obvious that it will happen or if, at the time this Licence was made, both we and you knew it might happen.

6.2. We do not exclude or limit in any way our liability to you where it would be unlawful to do so, including liability for death or personal injury caused by our negligence or the negligence of our employees, agents or subcontractors or for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.

6.3. If a device or digital content belonging to you is damaged by defective digital content that we have supplied, we will either repair the damage or pay you compensation. However, we will not be liable for damage that you could have avoided by following our advice to apply an update offered to you free of charge or for damage that was caused by you failing to correctly follow installation instructions or to have in place the minimum system requirements advised by us.

6.4. If you use the Software for any commercial or business purpose, we will have no liability to you for any loss of profit, loss of business, business interruption or loss of business opportunity.

6.5. You acknowledge that the Software has not been developed to meet your individual requirements, and that it is therefore your responsibility to ensure that the facilities and functions of the Software as described in the Documentation meet your requirements.

7. Termination

- 7.1. This Licence will remain in effect until terminated.
- 7.2. You may terminate the Licence at any time by removing the Software and Documentation from the computer on which you have installed it and otherwise destroying all other parts of the Software and Documentation together with all copies.
- 7.3. We may terminate this Licence immediately by written notice to you if you breach the terms of this Licence.
- 7.4. Upon termination for any reason:
- (a) all rights granted to you under this Licence shall cease;
  - (b) you must cease all activities authorised by this Licence; and
  - (c) you must immediately delete or remove the Software from all computer equipment in your possession and immediately destroy or return to us (at our option) all copies of the Software in your possession, custody or control and, in the case of destruction, certify to us that you have done so.

9. How we may use your personal information

- 9.1. - 10.2. You may only transfer the Software and Documentation and your rights or your obligations under this Licence to another person if we agree in writing. This is conditional on that person having agreed to accept the terms of this Licence and you destroying all copies of the Software that you have made or transferring them to that person. ## 13. No waiver

If we do not insist immediately that you do anything you are required to do under these terms, or if we delay in taking steps against you in respect of your breaking this terms of this Licence, that will not mean that you do not have to do those things and it will not prevent us taking steps against you at a later date.
